CIEE Global Institute – London

Course name: Business Ethics and Leadership
Course number: (GI) MGMT 3001 LNEN
Programs offering course: London Open Campus (Business track)
Language of instruction: English
U.S. semester credits: 3
Contact hours: 45
Term: Spring 2020

Course Description

This course examines the philosophical foundations and basic principles of ethics as they apply to businesses and the environments in which they operate. Real-world case studies are used to provide students with insight into the how businesses and organizations manage – and in some cases fail to manage – challenging ethical and moral dilemmas. Students also consider the particular responsibilities of business leaders in fostering ethical awareness and practices within the corporate context.

Learning Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the student should have the ability to:

- Define the role of ethics as part of a business’s operating principals
- Articulate (orally and in writing) the “business case” for ethical decision-making, i.e. how one shows that ethical practices make for good business practices
- Identify core Western ethical concepts in the context of business decisions through analysis of case studies
- Identify complex (on the surface or latent) moral issues in a variety of business scenarios
- Identify how morality intersects with the management of specific problem areas of business
- Demonstrate, in discussion and written work, sensitivity and awareness of how business ethics may vary relative to US and British ideas of ethical and moral conduct, and how this corresponds to their respective business cultures
- Identify the behaviours of successful leaders who manage toward an ethical business culture

Course Prerequisites

None.

Methods of Instruction

Through lectures and discussion, students will engage in core philosophical and moral concepts from a range of traditions, and practice identifying and articulating them in business settings. Readings are assigned to help students gain familiarity with key ideas and terms, which they will then be expected to integrate into their oral and written work (including term paper and a final exam). Clips from movies and TV that model intersections between ethical concepts and business will be used to provoke discussion and debate.

Course Requirements

Paper 1 and 2
Students will be required to analyse and critically discuss two case studies given in class and their success in implementation of ethics and leadership style. Each paper should be 750 words in addition to references.

Presentations
Each student is expected to give two presentations during the course.

Midterm Paper
This assignment will be a 1500 word research document utilizing a range of resources with excellent references. The student is strongly encouraged to integrate learning from site visits and guest speakers into the paper.

Final Exam
This exam will comprise of four questions. The student chooses two questions to answer during the exam. Each question will be answered in the form of a 500-750 word paper.

Participation
As part of your work in this course, students should demonstrate learning beyond the submission of written assignments or presentations. As such, all students receive grades based upon participation.

Participation is valued as meaningful contribution in the digital and tangible classroom, utilising the resources and materials presented to students as part of the course. Students receive grades based upon their contributions both in the classroom and in the Canvas course.
Meaningful contribution requires students to be prepared, as directed by the Instructor, in advance of each class session. Students must clearly demonstrate they have engaged with the materials where directed.

This includes valued or informed engagement in, for example, small group discussions, online discussion boards, peer-to-peer feedback (after presentations), interaction with guest speakers, and attentiveness on co-curricular and outside-of-classroom activities.

Attendance Policy

Regular class attendance is required throughout the program, and all unexcused absences will result in a lower participation grade for any affected CIEE course. Due to the intensive schedules for Open Campus and Short Term programs, unexcused absences that constitute more than 10% of the total course sessions will also result in a lower final grade.

Students who transfer from one CIEE class to another during the add/drop period will not be considered absent from the first session(s) of their new class, provided they were marked present for the first session(s) of their original class. Otherwise, the absence(s) from the original class carry over to the new class and count against the grade in that class.

For CIEE classes, excessively tardy (over 15 minutes late) students must be marked absent. Attendance policies also apply to any required co-curricular class excursion or event, as well as to Internship, Service Learning, or required field placement. Students who miss class for personal travel will be marked as absent and unexcused. No make-up or re-sit opportunity will be provided.

Attendance policies also apply to any required class excursion, with the exception that some class excursions cannot accommodate any tardiness, and students risk being marked as absent if they fail to be present at the appointed time.
